Intersections of Race, Gender, and Precarity Stephanie M. Baran,2022-01-28 In Intersections of Race Gender and Precarity Navigating Insecurities in an American City Stephanie Baran argues that when it comes to assistance the United States government often creates more problems than it solves These institutions are not in the business of creating a pathway for people to escape poverty often compounding that poverty instead Through a two year ethnographic study of poverty and insecurity in Milwaukee Wisconsin the author shows how people navigate situations of poverty through interviews with recipients and organizations as well as those working at a local community pantry Consequently research uncovered how local food organizations with connections to the Milwaukee Chapter of the Black Panther Party hide their more radical roots to protect food donations from white donors in essence protecting white fragility People are far closer to experiencing poverty than they realize as shown by the Government Shutdown of 2019 and the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic and typically have incomplete and inaccurate ideas of poverty as well as how people can experience upward mobility Intersections of Race Gender and Precarity reveals this gap through a focus on how all these factors show up in Milwaukee Wisconsin
